

Mentorship in Literary Arts

Spring Mentorship:

In the Spring we shifted focus to the academic and professional world of literary arts. We heavily focused on the role of conferences, publishers, and explored the different styles of literary work, including literary journalism and creative nonfiction. We were also introduced to the range of publication opportunities. This culminated in our attending AWP, the Association of Writers and Writing